The 13th CMAA Australian Country Music Achiever Awards – a gala evening held this year at the stunning WatersEdge in Sydney – saw ABC Music Publishing awarded ‘Publishing Company of the Year’ for the sixth year in succession.

The Achiever Awards, (an activity of the leading music industry body, the Country Music Association of Australia, CMAA), is an annual event that brings together the music industry in a night that celebrates and acknowledges the achievements of the many individuals and companies involved in making and promoting Australian music.

Other finalists for the Award included EMI Music Publishing, Mushroom Music Publishing, Shock Music Publishing and Jimmy Forty Music.

The award was again accepted by the Head of ABC Music Publishing, Eloise Nolan:

“Music Publishing is essentially a backroom game and with ABC Music Publishing, there are a number of people in the backroom working to make the most of the music and songwriters we represent.”

“While here in Sydney, Kellie Cefai and Natalie Waller help keep things together for our day-to-day operation, at Mushroom Melbourne, the Royalties, Licensing and Creative engine room, in particular, tick over in what has been a long and successful partnership with us - so for our writers, I like to think they get a fabulous two-for-one kind of a deal when they join our roster!”

The win comes hot on the heels of the participation by a number of ABC Songwriters at the first Country Music Mushroom Writers Bloc held in the Hunter Valley which saw writers such as Beccy Cole, Tom Curtain, Rod Auld, Sinéad Burgess and John Kater join with Mushroom writers Nick Barker, Michael Spiby, Mick Thomas, Felicity Urquhart, James Blundell, Suzy Connolly, Chuck Jenkins, Lianne Rose and Pete Wilson as well as outside guest writers Melinda Schneider, Karl Broadie, Diana Corcoran and Katrina Burgoyne.

Utilising the engineering and production skills of ‘wizard’ Matt Fell, the workshop resulted in over 21 songs and a number of ongoing collaborations between writers
