Bob Pigott brings a little bit of Tamworth home.

Fresh from sell out shows at the Tamworth Country Music Festival, one of Australia's hottest singer/songwriters, Bob Pigott is kicking off what promises to be a huge 2009 with a new concept in country music, "Tamworth at Your Place".

Bob is currently preparing for the upcoming Central Coast Country Music Festival with his band The Working Man's Dream and an intimate dinner show at Café La Soul during the Festival as well as finalising tunes for his much anticipated new album in July this year.

"While I was in Tamworth I met so many fans who told me that they had always wanted to come to Tamworth and that they couldn't wait to see our show. That got me thinking that maybe we could bring a little bit of Tamworth to the Coast and do a few gigs at fan's homes!

Because we are recording the new CD we've had to knock back some interstate shows and will be limited to local gigs for the next few months, so I thought why not do some of the shows here. We've already been booked for some "shed shows" in the Yarramalong Valley and slots are filling up fast. We can suit the show to any location, garage or lounge room and some people are combining the show with a fundraiser."

Bob has been recognised with a swag of song writing awards, has been featured on four ABC Music CD's and continues to receive national and international airplay.
